Learning to change the world

Now, more than ever, Third Sector chief executives need a strong support network of senior managers to help address the leadership challenges organisations face. Succession planning and investing in the next generation of chief executives is also vital if the sector is to thrive.

Designed by the sector for the sector, this programme provides protected space and support to build your leadership skills in line with your live issues and challenges. Delivered with an interactive approach, you will work together and learn from each other as you engage with different theories and leadership themes. This can be a powerful and transformational experience.

Our innovative approach to leadership development provides you with practical opportunities to learn from others, as well as a network of high profile chief executives. This six-day programme will provide you with the opportunity to reflect, share and connect with others.

“The Leading Edge Programme provides excellent insight into theories of leadership. The interactive nature of the programme enables participants to critically analyse their own leadership style and their individual leadership strengths and weaknesses in a very practical and topical way.

As someone who has recently taken up a new leadership position I have found the course content to be particularly appropriate and supportive.

I would strongly recommend anyone in a leadership position in their organisation or who may have aspirations of leadership to consider enrolling on Leading Edge.

Eamonn Donaghy,
CEO Age Sector Platform

Previous participants have said:

“ I am more confident in my delivery to my staff. I will take on board their feelings, think my actions through, be more prepared for meetings and delegate to staff more.

“ Feel the course has brought to the forefront my strengths and weaknesses and how to improve and manage them.

“ This programme has given me a “toolkit” to draw from and a new network of peers to reach out to for knowledge and support.

“ It has given me time to self-reflect and provided me with more clarity around the changes I need to make, and how to start doing that.
